Mohs Micrographic Surgery Item Selection Guide

Medicare Benefits Schedule (MBS) items and descriptors for Mohs micrographic surgery. You can bill these items if you map and histologically examine all excised tissue. You must be a Mohs Specialist recognised by the Australasian College of Dermatologists.

MBS Item	Description	Sections
31000	Head, neck, genitalia, hand, digits, leg (below knee) or foot	Up to 6 sections on the one tumour
31001	Head, neck, genitalia, hand, digits, leg (below knee) or foot	7 to 12 sections on the one tumour
31002	Head, neck, genitalia, hand, digits, leg (below knee) or foot	13 or more sections on the one tumour
31003	Any part of the body other than above	Up to 6 sections on the one tumour
31004	Any part of the body other than above	7 to 12 sections on the one tumour
31005	Any part of the body other than above	13 or more sections on the one tumour

Go to MBS Online for more information about billing these items.